50X1-HUM

1. Numerous arrests were carried out in September 1951 in Krakow and Rzeszow of elements at one time engaged in underground activities with the Polish Home Army when the country was under German occupation and who have hitherto escaped arrest.
2. Many of these persons voluntarily revealed their identities in response to the regime appeal and promise of amnesty. The present arrests mark the start of a further attempt on the Government's part to liquidate completely these elements.
